To my Patrons and Friends in Bangor and vicinity—Greeting.

For many years I have used WILDARTS HARMONY as a flying and coloring mixture. The results have been very satisfactory. It is the only one that will not injure the most delicate fabric, and will color more goods with less trouble than any other. TO CANDID REPUBLICANS.

We confidently appeal to candid Republicans who have been inclined to support the plausible doctrines so industriously put forth by Greenback leaders and demagogues, but who have become convinced that such doctrines are fraught with danger to come forward now and throw their influence in behalf of the sound principles which alone can bring prosperity and happiness to the people. At such a time no good citizen should permit a false pride to induce him to adhere to a position, which he had sincerely taken, but which, in the course of events, he discovers to be wrong. It is not a change that many honest and worthy citizens should be misled on a subject, hitherto little discussed and imperfectly understood, by the people at large, and the thought is not to be having been deceived by adroitly presented sophistries upon so intricate a question as that of national finance, but in adhering to a misdirected support when becoming aware of its dangerous character.

We have always felt more pride of character than of party, especially upon a question involving such grave interests and consequences as that upon which the intelligent people of Maine are about to give their decision at the polls. The candid, honorable, patriotic course to pursue, is that taken by Messrs. Payson, Dorchester and others of Newport, and hundreds of working citizens in other towns, who have promptly repudiated doctrines which they feel unsound. Conscience then dictates and patriotism, and who have sought by earnest effort to strengthen what they believe, after careful consideration, to be the true principles of national honor, safety and welfare. One of the ablest manifestoes of this class appears and presents in a card of Wm. J. Hamilton, Esq., of Milford, late of the most respected and influential citizens of that town, who had the opportunity recently engaged in the Greenback movement, but having become convinced that it is founded in error and calculated to work evil, has frankly come forward to aid the Republican party in its battle for Honest Government and Honest Money.

The very fact that designing politicians resorted at the outset to the device of committing citizens to doctrines they had never fully considered, by enrolling their names in Greenback organizations, affords ample reason for disregarding such attempts to bind them in advance to theories they have discovered to be unsound and dangerous. In all directions we learn, of honorable men who were drawn into the "movement" under misleading influences, who are now asserting their right to repudiate false guidance and give their influence to the right. "Let every honest citizen consider his duty to himself, to his family, to his neighbors, to his country, and then look at the Greenback nominees and platforms of this Greenback movement, and ask himself whether he can either by active support or by silent consent, aid in the schemes for repudiating a debt, distroying the rights of property, displacing Congress for the principles of integrity and understanding, he very soon finds, if public order. This is what Greenbackism means, as proclaimed by Ben Franklin and Sam Cary in their Wide, and in sentiment even exceeding Cluer in severity, by Gubernator Ladd in the city of Bangor.

It is time for every true citizen to rally around the standard of public honor and the maintenance of law, which are the very foundation of our national life, and thereby discomfit the plans of Anti-Christ."

REVISING THE VOTING LISTS.

The work of revising the voting lists is making progress and it is important that every Republican ascertain that his name is properly entered on the list of his ward, and if not that any errors in other names known to him be corrected. Information of names omitted or improperly entered should be promptly given to the City Committee, or to the Republican candidates for office.

HOW DO YOU LIKE THEM?

Those Republicans who have been disposed to act in alliance with Marcellus Emery and his Greenback ticket, will be assisted in learning his opinions of their character, by the following extract from a letter recently written by Emery himself, and discovered to be in existence. Information of names omitted or improperly entered should be promptly given to the City Committee, or to the Republican candidates for office.

Bangor, Sept. 5, 1876.

AN ATTEMPT AT SETTLEMENT.

George W. Ladd, secretary the Greenback committee, [illegible]

You are two men walking along the street; one is a rich beautifully and the other a ragged tramp. The rich man [illegible] the front door of his fine dwelling; the tramp, goes in at the back door, demands food or clothing, and if he is not given to him, HE STEALS IT. And WILL YOU, THAT TRAMP IS NOW ENTITLED TO MORE than the rich man who sits in his luxurious parlor!

THE GREENBACK AND STATE DEBTS.

Gen. Ingalls (Ohio Soldier), in 1867, in the speech made in the United States Senate (Cong. R., p. 337) said: "If I were to imagine anything a Fourteenth party, it should be one that made of hard money—hard money party against a paper party. Again, in 1868, (Cong. Globe, p. 2, p. 42), he said: "A paper currency is not recognized by the Constitution, but is repudiated by it." Wagner, on quoted in to same volume, page 38, says: "Since by small Greenbacks, (Greenbacks as low as $10 were proposed in the bill under discussion), not bearing interest, redeemable at no fixed period, receivable for duties from the Government. This is Greenbackism may go over again." If this is the kind of money the National Labor Paper money that we are clamoring for, and it is to the principal issue upon which they propose to go before the country and obtain the suffrages of the people.

Mr. [illegible] has by reason the [illegible] which, delivered by Senator Blaine in the Grand Pole for Bangor on yesterday, the fullest of which is given on our first page. It is in every sense a noble, enlivening in its eulogistic tone and Maine's republican history and is a source of the [illegible] political [illegible] and [illegible] and through it runs a vein of sound statesmanship and lofty patriotism, worthy in with all the brilliancy of expression for which its author is so distinguished.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

MEAGRE RETURNS RECEIVED.

PROCTOR'S PROBABLE MAJORITY 23,000

A Gain of Nineteen.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Sept. 3. Reports from various points in the State indicate a quiet election but neither definite as to the results. In some of the towns there is an exciting contest over representatives.

Town Councils—No Greenback Votes.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Sept. 3. Brattleboro has not witnessed so close a local contest for years. Republicans for many years. Dr. W. H. Bacon of this town was elected by 20 majority; Tyler, Republican for Congress ran ahead of his ticket and received 686 to Dickey's 710. The Greenback candidates did not receive a vote for the Assembly. Proctor received 563; Willard, 185; Bingham, 97.

Proctor's Probable Majority Over 20,000

MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 3. Returns are coming in very slowly. It is estimated that Proctor's majority will be from 20,000 to 25,000.

Returns from 97 Towns.

Returns from 97 towns give the following result: Proctor 17,341; Stanton 9,398; Martin, Greenback, 613; scattering, 220. Proctor's majority over all is 7,210. The same towns in 1876 gave Fairbanks 20,197; Bingham 8,663; showing a decrease of 3,940 in the Republican vote, and 1867 in the Democratic votes. The 141 towns to be heard from gave Fairbanks in 1870, 24,536; Bingham, 22,525; a striking 72. Providing the vote in the 44 to be heard from should be the same as in 1876, Proctor's (Republican) majority will probably be about 20,000 over all.

Miscellaneous Democratic Districts.

Returns from 37 towns in the First District give Joyce, Republican, 5,128; Eaton, Democrat, 3,766; scattering, 27; giving Joyce a majority of 1,335. The returns from 26 towns give Tyler, Republican, 6,228; Dockray, Dem., 2,500; Tyler's majority, 3,808.

Returns from fifty-five towns in the Third District gives the vote as follows: Grout, 9,461; Waterman, 7,017; Sayles, 5,403; scattering, 23. It is difficult to determine the final result from the meagre returns now in.
